Summary of the Seminar: A seminar on "Inclusive Education" was organized by the 2nd semester, 4th Semester and 6th semester students of Education General, Al-Ameen Memorial Minority College. The objective of this discussion cycle is to provide the students with proper knowledge about the reflection of modern thought in inclusive education in our country's education system. In this discussion cycle, the students through their paper presentations shed light on the concepts and objectives, nature and characteristics, advantages and constraints of inclusive education. Discussion of topics will help in character social moral education among the students as well as reflection of cohesive mindset among them. Besides, organizing the discussion cycle will show the direction of ideal life path by developing qualities like cooperation, empathy, sympathy etc. in the character of the students.

Awarding of Certificates of the seminar: The President announced the completion of the programme by awarding certificates to all the participants of the programme.
