Summary of the Seminar : The students of the Department of History and Islamic History & Culture of Al-Ameen Memorial Minority College participated in the seminar; some of them also presented papers on the topic " Efforts of Indian and Arab Thinkers to Shape the New Era ". The main theme of the seminar is to observe the universal ideals of Gautama Buddha and Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), two great Prophets born in India and Arabia. These great thinkers were able to shine a new light in the world civilization by spreading the ideals of non-violence and developing the ideals of social equality, friendship and brotherhood. The human ideals that they created in ancient India and Arabia by eliminating social inequality, disparity and establishing the rights of women, which had soon spread not only in the whole of India and Arabia but also in the whole world. Both great thinkers were also always active in abolishing the inhuman slavery system.

The broad masses of the present world civilization continue to follow these great ideals. They have penetrated the new world by making an end to the overall discrimination in the Society. The main purpose of this seminar is to transmit the great ideals of the two great thinkers Gautama Buddha and Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) to the minds of the students in order to inculcate in them the feelings of equality, fraternity and respect for each other together with awakening their human values in order to shape discipline in life.
